

I support this petition. I feel that the 27 month waiting period between application and launch of an Amateur Satellite is excessive, and results in the stiffling of technology that could be developed by the Amateur Service.